COMMUNITY, CULTURE AND WELL-CONNECTED CONVENIENCE COME TOGETHER

Ackender Hill is a collection of 2-5 bedroom homes in the market town of Alton – well positioned to take advantage of peace and quiet away from the hustle and bustle, while being well-connected.

A short stroll takes you to the high street, where you'll find a range of independent stores and eateries, alongside well-known chains, and museums and galleries which give an insight to the town's heritage.

In fact, your home at Ackender Hill once had a very famous neighbour, as Jane Austen's House is nearby. Now a museum, it's said to be the most treasured Austen house in the world as it's in this house where she wrote many of her well-known novels, including Pride and Prejudice. Her time spent in Alton and Chawton is celebrated each June with Jane Austen Regency Week.

Awarded the TripAdvisor Traveller's Choice Award 2020, The Mid Hants Railway Watercress Line runs out of nearby Alton train station, providing trips to Alresford on heritage and diesel trains. Expect many special events throughout the year featuring fine dining and real ale, as well as potential appearances from Thomas the Tank Engine.

Just nine miles away, you'll find the largest town in Waverley, Farnham – a market town which is home to a castle and a number of attractions. Featuring a wide range of independent and chain shops, it provides ample opportunity to sample something new, especially at the farmers' market, which runs once a month, where you can try local produce.

If you travel a little further, you'll find the cathedral city of Winchester, where you can visit one of the largest cathedrals in Europe, or take a trip to the South Downs National Park.

For commuters, Ackender Hill is a short drive from Alton train station, which will take you to London Waterloo in just over an hour. If you enjoy going a little further afield, London Heathrow Airport is just a 45 minute drive from your door.
